CHIEF SMITH SENDS NEW FACES TO DOG HEAVEN

ANNOUNCES THAT HE WILL DISPATCH ANIMALS AT OWNER'S REQUEST

Chief of Police Smith has announced that all parties desiring to get rid of dogs, bring the canines to his office and he will do the dispatching act in short order. During the past few evenings seven or eight dogs have been put out of their misery by the police chief, the process being with the aid of a cyanide solution that acts instantly and is painless.

Chief Smith stated today that he is willing to officiate in this line of work as often as is required in order that the dog population might be materially reduced. The cyanide process is humane, more so, in fact, than that of shooting or chloroform.

COMMUNICATION

Editor Bonanza.

Dear Sir:—Noticing your comment on the expressed willingness of many persons to take human life, I was prompted to write this article. It is not strange in the light of the fact of our great advancement in science and philosophy that almost our entire humanity is still controlled by emotion, sentiment, rather than by reason. A day or two since a very estimable lady related to me some of the details of the Mirkovich-Gregovich affair; it was the first details I had heard, for I never read such accounts. She told me how the murderer had thirsted for the blood of the murdered man, and I saw that she thirsted for the blood of the murderer. She did not say that it was too bad that no one could be found to shoot him, but she fondly hoped that justice might be done. Ah! yes, justice; what primitive ideas we have of justice.

If we thirst for the blood of a man are we not murderers, or does it make some difference whom we desire to murder? Justice should be based on reason; indeed, it is believed to be so based; but our people are controlled by an emotion called sentiment and reason is at once dethroned. In the light of reason many of our best people are seen to be no better than the worst.

A negro falls into that dark red caustic current called animal passion and commits a crime and at once 50 or 100 white men fall into that same current, now called sentiment; just another emotion of passion and they commit against their victim the greatest crime they can conceive of and call it justice.

Justice and reason, where art thou? Will humanity never rise above that primitive idea of an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth.

BEN P. MITCHELL.

NEWSBOY KING OF GOLDFIELD IN RENO HOSPITAL

LOUIS POLIN WILL SUBMIT TO OPERATION IN THE SISTERS' HOSPITAL

Louis Polin, the "Newsboy King," of Goldfield, well known all over the state by those who follow the mines or the markets, came to Reno yesterday to undergo an operation for a chronic trouble at the Sisters' hospital, says the Reno Journal.

Polin gained his wide acquaintance in the boom days of Goldfield, when he sold papers of every prominent city in the country, on a corner near Tex Rickard's Northern saloon and reaped a small fortune from the business which was conducted at mining camp prices. Money was cheap in those days and papers from home were dear. The enterprising youth added to his fortune by shrewd investments in mining stocks and cashed in before the game broke up.

The coming to Reno of Polin for medical treatment is a commentary on the excellence of professional skill to be had here. He has just returned from a trip through the east, including the Atlantic seaboard and Chicago and back through Los Angeles and San Francisco, but he decided to postpone the operation until he reached Reno, believing he could get as good attention and treatment here as anywhere. Dr. McKenzie will perform the operation.

Justice of the Peace H. H. Atkinson left for Manhattan this morning and will spend Sunday in the northern camp looking after his campaign for the republican nomination for the district attorney's office.

---how much Is A "Regular Customer" Worth to Your Store?

Suppose you could BUY 100 additional REGULAR CUSTOMERS during the next week or two—customers who, for years and years to come, would make a MAJORITY of their purchases of goods in your line at YOUR STORE?

What would each of these 100 customers be WORTH to you?

It is, we think, quite likely that if such an investment were possible, you'd eagerly pay TWICE AS MUCH as it would cost you to secure these 100 REGULAR CUSTOMERS through an advertising campaign big enough and aggressive enough to really make people ACQUAINTED with your store!
